

Helpful Links for Students

<http://crosswalk.com>

This site has a lot of helpful information. We encourage you to check out the Bible Study Tools section of this site. The tools provided are: a Bible search, dictionaries, commentaries, encyclopedias, parallel and interlinear Bibles. If you are looking for a particular Scripture passage or topic, these tools will help you find what you are looking for and give you an opportunity to use resources to further study the meaning of that passage.

<http://therebelution.com>

Go to this site to be challenged and encouraged to excel and live above the status quo!

<http://pluggedinonline.com>

Check out reviews for books, music, tv, games, and movies from a Christian perspective.

<http://christianitytoday.com/teens/>

Campus Lifes Ignite Your Faith site. There are articles, hot topic Q & A's, Christian college information and more.

<http://icr.org>

The official website of The Institute for Creation Research. Ever wonder about the evolution theories that are being taught at school or wonder how to answer questions that others ask you about proof of creation vs. evolution? This a great website to find answers.

<http://purefreedom.org>

Be passionate about purity.

<http://korministries.com>

This site is not completely up and running yet, but when it is you will be able to access "Breakaway", "Brio", and "Brio & Beyond". Web magazines for guys and girls. Great alternatives to the usual teen magazines. You will find articles about current events, sports, fashion, music, etc. all from a Christian perspective. If you go to the website and sign up, they will send you an email when the magazines become available online. In the meantime, there are great articles on the korministries home page.